

ANAGA - THE PIRATE COAST

ROUTE TYPE: Scenic car route with short walks (viewpoints, villages, and coastal stops)

ESTIMATED DURATION: 4–5 hours (including driving and stops). DISTANCE: Approx. 45 km.

This is a long driving route through narrow, winding mountain roads—please drive carefully and watch for cyclists. Many visitors split the experience, enjoying part of the route in the morning and continuing after lunch. You can stop in Taganana, Roque de las Bodegas, or Almáciga, where you'll find local restaurants serving traditional Canarian cuisine and fresh fish.

ROUTE OVERVIEW (STOPS):

1. Church of Santo Domingo de Guzmán
2. Old Path to Pico del Inglés
3. Mirador del Pico del Inglés
4. Mirador del Bailadero
5. Mirador Risco Amogoje
6. Taganana village & Church of Nuestra Señora de las Nieves
7. Roque de las Bodegas
8. Playa de Almáciga
9. Castillo de Paso Alto

VISITABLE PLACES & OPENING HOURS:

(⚠ Indicative schedules based on typical current information. Subject to change—always check official or local sources before visiting.)

- Church of Santo Domingo de Guzmán (La Laguna): generally open daily approx. 09:00–13:00 / 17:00–19:00.
- Miradores (Pico del Inglés, Bailadero, Risco Amogoje): open-access viewpoints, available at all times.
- Taganana – Church of Nuestra Señora de las Nieves: typically open mornings and during services (approx. 10:00–13:00, variable).
- Roque de las Bodegas & Playa de Almáciga: natural public areas, open at all times.
- Castillo de Paso Alto: exterior visit only; interior access is generally restricted or limited to special events.

PRACTICAL TIPS FOR THE ROUTE

- Driving conditions: Roads in Anaga are narrow, winding, and mountainous—drive carefully and allow extra time.
- Fuel & supplies: There are limited services in the area—bring water, snacks, and ensure your tank is sufficiently full.
- Footwear: Wear comfortable shoes for short walks and uneven terrain.
- Weather: Conditions can change quickly (fog, humidity, wind)—bring layers.
- Safety at the coast: Beaches like Almáciga have strong currents—always follow local safety advice.
- Respect nature: Anaga is a protected natural area—stay on marked paths and avoid littering.